

said Mrs. Mills, Opie said, I don't think so, but if you want to call him up, go down home and Mrs. Day will let you in and you can go upstairs as no one is there and use the telephone.

October 21st, 1922. Statement to me by Barbara. Left Hall house on September 14th, 1922 about 2:30 P.M., got on trolley on Troop and George Streets, went to Ray Street and Gaston Avenue got off and went to 199 <sup>on</sup> Eastern <sup>and</sup> house of Mrs. Anthony who is a cousin of Barbara through marriage. Barbara and Mrs. Anthony left for the Parker house at about 3:10 P.M. Mrs. Thompson of Parker house <sup>was with</sup> them until 5:15 P.M. and then returned to Anthony house and had supper, staid at the house until 7:45 P.M., when Barbara's friend Archie Cooper called for her in an auto then Archie and Barbara went to the International Factory got Roy Anthony at 8 P.M., brought him home to 199 Eastern Avenue, remained there until about 8:55 P.M. and then drove a little further than Mrs. Nelson's on Clifton Avenue, asked him to stop the car, told Archie she had some home mail remained talking until 9:50 P.M., Archie then drove Barbara home getting there at about 10 P.M., as she entered the gate she asked Archie for the time and he told her it was 5 minutes to 10 P.M.

Information secured from Mrs. Leo Hawkins, of 108 Richardson Street, she saw Mrs. Mills just at about the time the one man trolley car got to the end of the line. Mrs. Mills was carrying a scarf on her right arm and a small package under the same arm, about the size of a mayonaise jar, it was a square package, also that Mrs. Mills passed her carriage on the right side going out, when she met Hall she was coming in, and this was about 5 minutes after meeting Mrs. Mills, smiled but did not speak, she fixed the time for the reason that she looked at the clock which is on the vocational school and it showed 8 P.M. A Mrs. Bluse of 101 Richardson Street was with her at the time Hall got off a South Amboy car and Mrs. Mills on the one man car. <sup>9</sup> Justice of the Peace Theodore Barth of West Park Avenue, who lives
